Save Money at the Venice Port Complex

It's no secret. These are tough times for the Oil and Gas Industry. The recent plummet in the price of oil has made cutting operating costs and maximizing operating efficiency the top priority for everyone linked to the Oil and Gas Industry. With that being said, the VPC offers a silver lining to soften the blow that has all but dropped the Oil and Gas Industry to its knees. So come to the VPC!

Why set up shop in the VPC? The answer is as equally obvious as it is compelling. First, the VPC offers the closest, quickest and thus the cheapest access to the Central and Eastern Gulf of Mexico. Proximity alone sets the Venice Port Complex above the rest, because as we all know, time and distance equals money. Second, whether your business is in the market for a vacant site available for lease or the option to operate from an existing facility, the VPC can meet your needs at below-market rates. While "cheap" is a description adorned by few, here at the Venice Port Complex, we embrace the term and promote our affordable rental rates to businesses aimed at maximizing profits during this turbulent time.

Finally, and perhaps most importantly, the VPC is occupied by an array of companies which are sure to meet your business's every need. Inside, you can see "The Company We Keep". Thus, the exceedingly more difficult question is in fact, "why not the VPC?" - a question with no rational answer. While it may seem too good to be true, the opportunity presented by the VPC is in fact a "no-brainer". So instead of maintaining the status quo hoping to limp through this financially and emotionally stressful time, fight back and SET UP SHOP AT THE VPC!
